

I think that XM radio should be allowed to provide weather and traffic information to its subscribers. I pay for what I want and I want weather and traffic information.